2 August 2018

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

Following are the details of an event that has been approved by the College Leadership Team.

Please read the information listed below, discuss the details with your child. If you have any questions please contact the organising teacher, Mr B Gilholme via college office.

Name of Organising Teacher:	Mr B Gilholme
Excursion Date:	Tuesday, 25 September 2018
Venue:	St John Paul 2 Catholic College, Schofields Campus Rooms S24A & S24B
Why students should attend:	Poetry in Action is a theatre company dedicated to bringing poetry to life through performance. They are one of Australia's most widely travelled and innovative theatre companies, having performed in hundreds of communities to hundreds of thousands of young people. Their performances provide an entertaining opportunity for students to engage with poetry. The show 'United Nations of Poetry' explores the way that poetry can help us appreciate cultural diversity. The content of the show has connections with units of work studied in English throughout year 9.
Start & Finish Time:	Period 2 - 9.00am-9.50am
Performance Cost:	No Cost
Students are to wear:	Full College Uniform
